Doodles & Dreams

by Dani Duck

This book is all about having fun while doodling. Feel free to play on any page you wish! If you want to make an apartment building instead of decorating a cake, then feel free!

If you post any of your creations this month be sure to tag it with #doodledreams. I'd love to see what you make (even if it's not based on the prompts in this book). My blog will have more fun things happening in September. Be sure to check it out here: www.daniduck.com/blog.
